STICHERA ON THE PRAISES

Tone 8, Melody "What shall we call you...?"

Optina Hermitage Melody

Reader: In the Eighth Tone, to the melody "What shall we call you"; Praise Him with timbrel and dance,

True preachers of His Gos - pel? Faithful friends who love Him more than life it-self? Now that you stand before the throne of the King of Glo - - - - - ry. do not forget your spiritual chil - dren and pray that our souls may be saved.

Reader: Praise Him with tuneful cymbals; praise Him with cymbals of jubilation.

Guides, who lead those who are blind in their spir - it - ual eyes?
Wonderworkers, who heal both souls and bod - ies? Now that ye are num - bered with the Cho - - - sen of God. Remember us who glorify your mem - or - ies, and pray that our souls may be saved.

Reader: Blessed are all they that fear the Lord, no books can contain all ye endured for the Mas - ter. But ye la-bored not for earthly gain or glo - ry, on-ly to feed the hun-gry and pro-vide for those in need, visit the sick and teach those who were un-taught, and to pray that our souls be saved.

(3) Reader: By the Lord are the steps of a man rightly directed,

guiding us toward the un-cre-a - ed Light, along the way nourishing us with the food of the King - dom. So to-day, we who have been en-light - - - - - ened gather and celebrate your sa - cred mem - o-ries and we pray that our souls may be saved.
