

Reader: Glory, both now, in the 2nd Tone:

Glory... Both now and ever, and unto the ages of a - ges. A - men.

Let us chant the hymn of David /

unto Christ God today, O ye people:

The virgins that follow after her, said he, shall be brought to the King, / and those near her shall be brought in gladness and rejoicing; /

for she who is of the seed of David, /

for whose sake we have been deified, /

is gloriously and ineffably placed in the hand of her Son and Master. /

Hymning her as the Mother of God, let us cry aloud and say: /

From every evil circumstance save us, who confess thee to be the Theotokos, // and deliver our souls from misfortune.
