Daniel, the man of divine desires, /
seeing Thee, the Stone uncut by human hands, O Lord, /
prophetically called Thee a babe born without seed, /
the Word incarnate of the Virgin, //
the immaculate God, the Savior of our souls.

Reader: Both now, in the same tone.

Both now and ever, and unto the a - ges of a - ges. A-men.

Splendidly adorn thyself, O cave, / for the ewe-lamb cometh / who doth bear Christ in her womb! / O manger receive thou Him /
Who by a word doth release us mortals from irrational activity! /
Ye piping shepherds, bear witness to the awesome wonder! /
Ye magi from Persia, bring forth gold, frankincense and myrrh, / for the Lord hath appeared from the Virgin Mary.
And His mother, regarding Him as befiteth a handmaid, worshipped Him / and cried out in greeting unto Him Who was laid in her arms: /
How wast Thou sown within me? //
How didst Thou spring forth in me, O my Deliverer and God?
