The - o - to - kos, and bow down, crying out in repentance from the depth of our souls: Help us, O Lady, who hast had mer - cy up - on us.

Haste thou, for we perish from a multitude of trans - gres - sions.

Turn not thy ser - vants a - way. for thee do we have as our on - ly hope.

October 24: Another Troparion, Tone 4

Obikhod

Un - wor - thy though we are, we cannot cease to proclaim thy power,

O The - o - to - kos; for if thou wouldst not inter - cede in prayer, who would deliver us from such mis - for - tunes? Who would have kept us free un - til now? We shall not forsake thee, O Mis - tress, for thou dost ever save thy servants from all e - - - vil.
