Stichos: Praise Him with tuneful cymbals, praise Him with cymbals of jubilation.

Let ev - ery breath _____ praise _____ the Lord.

<Repeat 1st Sticheron: "Having combined their spiritual art..."

Stichos: Blessed art Thou, O Lord God of our fathers,

And praised and glorified is Thy name un - to the a - - - ges.

The first system of music features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is primarily composed of chords, with some eighth-note runs. The lyrics are: "And praised and glorified is Thy name un - to the a - - - ges." The word "ages" is elongated with three dashes.

2. Hav - ing re - ceived all the no - e - tic ra - - - di - ance

The second system continues the musical setting. The lyrics are: "2. Hav - ing re - ceived all the no - e - tic ra - - - di - ance". The word "ance" is elongated with three dashes.

Stichos: Gather together unto Him His holy ones,

Who have established His covenant up-on sac - ri - fi - ces.

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble and bass staff in G major. The treble staff features a series of chords, with some notes beamed together and others held over. The bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with quarter and eighth notes.

3. Hav-ing mus-tered all their pas - tor - al skill, and then being moved

The second system continues the musical notation with similar chordal structures in the treble staff and a steady accompaniment in the bass staff.

to wrath _____ most just, as cham - pi - ons,

The third system includes a long horizontal line under the word "wrath" in the lyrics, indicating a sustained note or a specific melisma in the original chant.

as most true ser - vants of Christ, — and most sacred keep - ers

The final system concludes the musical notation with a final cadence in the treble staff and a sustained bass line.

of the mys-ter-ies of di-vine preach - ing, the di-vine pas-tors drove - - forth the savage and per - ni - cious wolves, cast - ing them out of the ful-ness of the Church, and they fell,

as it were, to their deaths as ones afflicted in-cur - a - bly.

Reader: Glory, in the 8th Tone:

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spi - - - rit.

The choir of the holy fathers, / which came together from the ends of the whole world, / taught the one essence and nature / of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, / and clearly transmitted the mystery of theology to the Church. /
Praising them with faith, let us bless them saying: / O godly company, /
divinely eloquent warriors of the regiment of the Lord, / greatly radiant towers of the mystic Sion, / flowers of paradise, wafting forth the scent of myrrh, / golden mouths of the Word, / boast of Nicea, and adornment of the whole world: //
pray ye in behalf of our souls!

Both now... Most Blessed art thou, O Virgin Theotokos...
